

Summer Writing

Choose a job. Write about a day in the life of a person doing that job. Pretend you are a dollar bill. Write about your adventures in the mall. Write about your favorite vacation. Include words to describe what you heard, smelled, tasted, saw, and felt. Give advice to a student going into first or second grade. Explain how to make the world's best cookie. Name the best movie you have seen this summer. Why should someone go to see it? What kind of cereal should your mom buy the next time she goes to the store? Why should she buy that cereal? If you had to eat one kind of food forever, what would it be? Why did you choose that food? If you could cook any meal for your family, what would it be? What do you like best about your home? Describe a time you were brave. What part would you play in a circus? Why?

Find more ideas for summer writing at:

<http://www.superteacherworksheets.com/journal-prompts.html>

Summer Writing

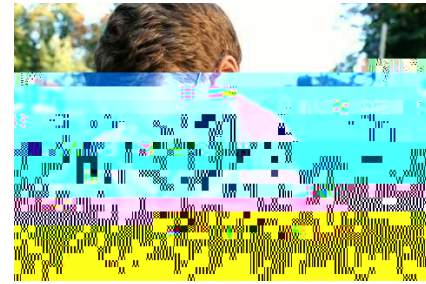

Choose a job. Write about a day in the life of a person doing that job. Pretend you are a dollar bill. Write about your adventures in the mall. Write about your favorite vacation. Include words to describe what you heard, smelled, tasted, saw, and felt. Give advice to a student going into first or second grade. Explain how to make the world's best cookie. Name the best movie you have seen this summer. Why should someone go to see it? What kind of cereal should your mom buy the next time she goes to the store? Why should she buy that cereal? If you had to eat one kind of food forever, what would it be? Why did you choose that food? If you could cook any meal for your family, what would it be? What do you like best about your home? Describe a time you were brave. What part would you play in a circus? Why?

Find more ideas for summer writing at:

<http://www.superteacherworksheets.com/journal-prompts.html>

Summer Writing

Choose a job. Write about a day in the life of a person doing that job. Pretend you are a dollar bill. Write about your adventures in the mall. Write about your favorite vacation. Include words to describe what you heard, smelled, tasted, saw, and felt. Give advice to a student going into first or second grade. Explain how to make the world's best cookie. Name the best movie you have seen this summer. Why should someone go to see it? What kind of cereal should your mom buy the next time she goes to the store? Why should she buy that cereal? If you had to eat one kind of food forever, what would it be? Why did you choose that food? If you could cook any meal for your family, what would it be? What do you like best about your home? Describe a time you were brave. What part would you play in a circus? Why?

Find more ideas for summer writing at:

<http://www.superteacherworksheets.com/journal-prompts.html>